NEW EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IS CHOSEN; EACH DIST. HONORED

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, Sept. 13.—New officers were elected by the Republican and Democratic County Central Committees here last evening. They follow: Republican—A. F. Bray, Martinez, chairman; Levi Boswell, Richmond, vice chairman; H. A. Kamerer, Crockett, secretary; W. F. Huber, Stege, treasurer. Democratic—Henry Curry, Martinez, chairman; F. W. Netherton, Martinez, secretary.

The Democrats recommended the appointment of Attorney C. D. Horner and C. J. Geraghty, both of Richmond, to the state committee.

An executive committee with a representative from each of the supervisorial districts was appointed by the Republicans. It is composed of G. E. Milnes, No. 1; Francis George, No. 2; A. N. Patterson, No. 3; and F. W. Heidorn, No. 5. The Republican county committee recommends the appointment of J. F. Galvin of Richmond and R. R. Veale of Martinez to the state convention.

A resolution was also passed at the Republican meeting endorsing the Republican candidates nominated at the primary.

George Patton, Democratic candidate for the senate, was not in attendance at the Democratic meeting as was reported. He passed through this city earlier in the day. Edward Grant of Marin county and candidate for state senator, attended the meeting.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Democratic committee.

"Four years of extraordinary beneficial and remedial legislation of the Democratic party is of such salient effect, insuring to the welfare of all the people in every walk of life, the business man and the worker, as to conspiciously incite admiration and apprrbation of the executive head of this nation, the President, Woodrow Wilson, that it be hereby resolved:

"That the Democrats of Contra Costa county through their committee in meeting assembled acclaim their endorsement of the Democratic administration under the guidance of that great student and scholar, President Wilson, and promise their most loyal support to Wilson and Marshall for president and vice-president of these United States.

"We also congratulate the people of California in being so ably represented in the United States senate by that peerless Democrat, the Honorable James D. Phelan.

"Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be recorded upon the official records of the Democratic County Central Committee of Contra Costa county, State of California, and that a copy be mailed to U. S. Senator James D. Phelan."

PRESENT CHARTER "INSANE" SAYS A LOCAL CLUBWOMAN

A discussion of the good and bad qualities in the Richmond city charter will be held by the Richmond club Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. S. Gibson, a prominent member of the club in speaking of the present charter said: "It is insane in many respects." Papers on model city governments will be ready by the members at the meeting on Monday.

It is the contention of the club that a student of municipal affairs and not a tradesman or artisan should be at the head of a city government.

BUSINESS HEAD OF UNIONS WILL ATTEND MEETING

Fred Heckman, business agent for the Richmond unions will leave for Eureka October 1 to attend the annual convention of the State Federation of Labor of which organization he is a vice-president.

Heckman will be accompanied by his wife. He is being sent to the convention by the local teamsters' union.

Mrs. Bert Carter has returned to this city following a brief visit with relatives at Stockton.

The police were provided with a good description of the men and expect to take them into custody this evening.

LOCAL COMPETITION TO BRING NEW CRAFT

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, September 13—Keen competition which is being meted out to the local ferry company by the Richmond-San Rafael boat is causing the local ferry directors to arrange for a new craft..

George W. Dickie, marine architect was in conference with the local ferryboat owners all of yesterday arranging for a new ferryboat.

The notorious Six Bells cafe, the Chateau, Sullivans, the Stag and Odoms are still a stench in the nostrils of the people of the western end of the county, and the nefarious traffic peculiar to each one is being carried on in violation of the liquor ordinance of the county. This ordinance forbids the presence of women in any saloon of the county, or in any of the rooms used in connection with the business, but the proprietors of these places seem to be immune. And it is now days since affidavit was made to the office of the district attorney asking that the red light abatement act be enforced, but as yet nothing has been done.

Attorney W. S. Tinning made the statement in open court that there was never any intention on the part of the district attorney to proceed. Guess he knew what he was talking about.

WHY?

JOHN NICHOLL IS ALL ALONE IN $$$ COLUMN

One lone individual must represent Richmond in Dau's blue book listings of millionaire families of the United States. Representatives of that firm who have been engaged in combing this city for wealthy families during the past few days find John Nicholl to be the only person with a creditable financial showing.

The names of fifty of the most wealthy families in this city are being taken by the company.

TRADES COUNCIL WILL VOTE UPON NOV. AMENDMENTS

The building trades council of this city will go on record this evening as to its stand in California's prohibition fight.

According to Business Agent Fred Heckman of the local unions, it is probable that the unions will vote against prohibition, owing to the large number of brewery workers and bartenders affiliated with the council.

REDMEN ENJOY BIG LADIES NIGHT PARTY

A large number were in attendance at the successful ladies night social held by Onetah Tribe Redmen in Pythian hall last evening. In charge of the affair was O. J. Ripley and J. Casey.

A program of musical and literary numbers was followed with dancing and refreshments.

TO TOUR THE SOUTH

City Treasurer Ira Vaughn, accompanied by his wife, will leave on an automobile trip to the southern part of the state tomorrow. They will be gone for two weeks. While at San Diego Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn will take in the exposition.

Trans-Continental Telephone Call Brings Patient From Bed

Genuine surprises are usualy few and far between, especially for convalescents. When you are just recovering from an illness which has confined you to your bed for a period of fourteen months it takes something out of the ordinary to invigorate you with happiness and good cheer.

Monday evening while Stanley Wright, junior member of the firm of LaSelle & Wright, furniture dealers of this city, was counting the days until he should be engaged in active business again his telephone rang.

"Chicago wants Mr. Wright," said the operator.

Smiling at the joke as he supposed it was which some of his friends were playing on him he said "all right put Chicago on the line." Almost instantly there followed a series of clicks with the operator in the windy city saying, "Richmond, here is your party."

And over that 2600-mile space without tremor or blurr he exchanged greetings with his brother-in-law, Dr. C. H. Kaufman.

"Never in my life have I experienced such a surprise," said Mr. Wright in speaking of the experience. "We could hear each other very plain—although the conversation was in a moderate tone."

NEW LIBRARY TO OPEN SATURDAY

On Saturday, September 16, the second of the Carnegie branch county libraries will be opened in Antioch with informal dedicatory exercises. The library, while very different in lines from the one built by Randolph Hook for Walnut Creek, is very attractive. It is light, airy and artistic in coloring. The design was given by Frances Reid, and built by P. M. Sanford, contractor.

Some time ago the county librarian of the county asked the Carnegie corporation for a gift of $2500 each for the three towns of Walnut Creek, Antioch and Concord. Two of the libraries have been completed, the third at Concord having been held up by objections on the part of three residents of the town to its location in the town square, a location given freely by the town trustees. A settlement is expected soon and the hope expressed by all that Concord will soon have her little building.

HIGH SCHOOL READY FOR DANCE

Many invitations are in the mails today for a dancing party to be held by the students of the Richmond high school Friday evening. Holloway Jones, president of the students' association will be in charge of the affair.

Music for the evening will be furnished by the high school orchestra.

FORD SPENDS 30 MINUTES LOOKING OVER THIS CITY

Henry Ford, "jitney millionaire" had thirty minutes time to glimpse Richmond from the windows of his private car "Philadelphia" today.

His private car, second from the engine on the Santa Fe's crack train the "Angel" arrived here at 4:20 o'clock from Oakland. After a few minutes wait at the Macdonald avenue depot the train backed down to Ferry point where it waited until 4:50 for the San Francisco boat.

During all that time Ford was watching Richmond's shore line and factories with interest.

SUGAR JUMPS 15¢ CENTS ON 100 LBS.

Local merchants announced an advance of 15 cents per 100 pounds in all grades of refined sugar today. The advance followed a similar announcement on the part of eastern shippers, due to the recent rise in the price of the raw product on the Atlantic seaboard.

WILL COMMENCE R. R. WORK SOON

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, September 13.—That work will be started on the construction of the Martinez & Concord Interurban Electric Railway within the next few weeks was the statement of Judge Clifford McClellan one of the promoters of the project when he was in Martinez yesterday.

McClellan asserted that the contract for the grading is to be awarded this week and that the grading-work will be started on Escobar, Pine and Jones streets and the Pacheco road.

Dr. E. W. O'Brien, dentist, 912 Macdonald avenue. se6-12t

THANHAUSER WILL BE DISCUSSED BY MUSICAL SECTION

Mrs. A. C. Burdick, chairman of the music section of the Richmond club, has arranged a musical entertainment for Monday, September 25, at the clubhouse. She will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Schram, Mrs. H. A. Stiver, Mrs. C. S. Gibson, Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. G. E. Milnes.

On November 27 the music section will hold a reading of "Thanhauser" and selections by that composer.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINER READY FOR APPLICANTS

Selah R. Beale, secretary of the civil service board of examiners and clerk at the local postoffice in this city is preparing for a series of examinations for 200 male stenographers wanted by the government.

The salaries range from $840 a year to $1000. Advancement of capable appointees is reasonably rapid. Occasionally an appointment is made at a salary of as much as $1200 a year. For this amount a percentage of 85 is required.

CITY CAN NOW PREPARE NEW OPENINGS OVER SANTA FE R. R.

Cities that have never transferred their powers over public utilities to the Railroad Commission still retain the power to provide for and regulate railway crossings within their boundaries.

This was established yesterday by the supreme court's decision in a Los Angeles case. The decision has been awaited with interest in Los Angeles because on Friday the Railroad Commission is to hold in that city a hearing on the proposition of doing away with many Los Angeles railway crossings and establishing a union depot.

The case before the court was begun four years ago. In the lower court the city won its contention that it had the right to condemn and purchase and regulate a street crossing on the Southern Pacific tracks. The railroad argued that the Railroad Commission must first give permission, as it alone had such control. The commission filed a brief as friend of the court, contending it did have such power. The supreme court upholds the lower court and rules against the commission.

The decision reiterates the rule that cities that have not transferred public utility control still retain all powers over public utilities except the power to fix rates.

This decision is of great importance to Richmond, for it comes under the classification of California cities which have never transferred to the Railroad Commission power to regulate internal affairs, but the commission delegated powers to itself to control everything, including every matter having to do with spur track construction, grade crossings of streets and all matter of like character.

The Railroad commission told the city council that it could not extend streets across the Oakland branch of the Santa Fe railroad at Third, Fifth and Eighth streets, or any other place, except as specified by that body. Under this decision of the supreme court the council of this city can now go ahead and run as many streets across the Santa Fe or any other railroad as it sees fit.

Not only has the Railroad Commission lost control of matters such as recited above, but in all matters of public service corporation control, except in the matter of fixing rates. This function still remains in the hands of the commission, according to the decision.

STEALING A CAREER

The way of the transgressor is hard, and honesty is the best policy, and yet a great many take their chances on the hard road, and believe another policy is better than honesty. They will not be deterred therefrom by a demonstration that they can make more money in legitimate ways.

An inmate of the Kansas penitentiary, who ought to be a prisoner in a satistical bureau, has satisfied himself by diligent inquiry and study that $39 is the average haul of the their, highwayman, embezzler, or other variety of thief, and that the owner gets back, on an average, $21 of this. The thief clears, on an average, $18, which is $6 a year for the three years he will, on an average, spend in the penitentiary.

But this demonstration will have no effect whatever upon the man who finds himself tempted to steal. He is not tempted to steal $18 with the certanty, on an average, of going to prison for three years. He is tempted to steal $100 or $1,000 or $1,000,000, and he does not expect to be caught.

You can't keep men out of the gospel ministry by showing them that ministers on an average get $750 a year. It has been computed that the average earnings of a lawyer and a doctor in New York city are $1200 to $1500 a year, and New York is a rather expensive place in which to live. That is not a golden bait to dangle before the vision of young men, but in spite of its severe and restrictive appearance, the medical and law schools are thronged with earnest young men who know that there are lawyers who make $100,000 a year, and doctors who make $50,000.

The law of averages may entertain statisticians and social scientists and economists, but no individual recognizes that it has any personal application to him. He is not aiming at any average result. He may not be a person of inordinate conceit; he may not take a florid and gilt view of himself. He may, indeed, admit when cornered that he is probably only an average man. But he never aims at an average result. Whether he is practicing at the bar, or behind the bar, or taking a course which may land him before the bar, he fixes his attention upon something that is considerably above the average.

The human average is not attained by conscious effort. It is the status of those who have undertaken something a good deal above the average, missed it, and fallen back. The number who do this is very large. Most of the world's work is done by these average men, but they expected something different. They may not know why they did not get it. They may have very wrong notions about this. They may not admit that "it is not in our stars, but in ourselves that we are underlings." But they expected to reach something above the average.

Stealing will not be diminished in Kansas by the mathematical demonstration that on an average a thief only clears $18, for which he will have to spend three years in the penitentiary.

There is one publication—the Congressional Record—that has not yet done anything to curtail its size in order to beat the high cost of the paper game.

DECENCY IN DANCING

The annual convention of dancing masters has corroborated the general impression that the tango, maxixe and other ultramodern dances are "going out" and there is a return to the simple, sane dances of former years. And at the convention a certain dancing master from Cleveland has been listened to with unusual docility.

This particular expert is the son of a minister. In his youth his father preached that "the ballroom led to the lowest depths of hell." The son made a beeline for the nearest dance hall and decided that perhaps father was right.

"But I knew it was not beyond reformation," he says. "I told him I could do more good in the world teaching dancing than preaching." And after a little he started in to demonstrate his theory.

He held to the simple old dances. He insisted on their being danced decently. He admitted only decent people to his dance hall. When the tango became the rage, he refused to teach it, in spite of the "easy money" it offered. He calmly ignored the crazy batch of dances turned out in New York while the fever was running its course. And he seems to have demonstrated that the public really prefers decent dances. At any rate the tango didn't last six months in Cleveland.

And he has made $1,000,000 teaching decent dances.

COST OF GOVERNMENT

This congress, like most of its predecessors, has established a new record on appropriations, and has found new revenue measures necessary to meet those appropriations. The country should be used to that course of events by this time, whether it is or not. And the country knows, as congress itself must know, that much of that vast expenditure is waste. However, it isn't as easily eliminated as an outsider might imagine. So great is the demand for pork that the needless appropriation must sometimes pass to secure the necessary funds in some other field.

There is consolation, also, in the fact that the nation prospers despite the cost of government, and that the burden of taxation is less keenly felt here than in most of the foreign countries. In the war-torn countries of Europe, for example, there is piling up a burden of indebtedness which must fall heavily even on future generations. Our government is far from perfect, but it is about the best available at present.

Also as the country developes, grows more populous and and more prosperous, the cost of government is bound to increase. It isn't taxation which helps or hurts so much as the manner of expending the revenues so derived. Preparedness is bound to be expensive, but the bulk of the people believe it necessary. Also, its cost will continue to increase, as will the expense in other branches of government. There is no need to expect the pendulum to swing the other way, and political choice must hinge rather on the matter of raising revenue, and choice of its expenditure, than on any hope of reduction, for the cost of government is high, like the cost of living, and likely to go higher.

ADVANCE FASHIONS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, September 12.—American designers have outdone their previous records, and the showing of new styles, both in frocks and outer garments, is most alluring. Suits will of course be worn, but one-piece trotteur frocks, most of them in coat-like models, lead the mode for smart street and utility dress. There is great variety in design and in the details of these frocks and many smart models are shown in top coats.

FOR GENERAL WEAR

For general wear, in car or train, come a lot of smart models that top any day time dress fittingly. All the soft faced velvet wollens are first favorites for coats, and fur used sparingly or lavishly, is the trimming touch par excellence. The wide adjustable collars of last winter are repeated in new cuts and adjustments and ample flowing lines without special flare characterize nearly every model seen. Where belts are employed they are loose and emphasize rather than break the straight lines that dominate almost every model displayed in advance showings.

MOTOR APPAREL

As a nation we are quite motor-mad, and nearly everyone has need of a motor coat for frequent or occasional use. Except for long touring trips people no longer envelop themselves in duster coats or wear the hideous headgear one thought fitting, in a car. Small hats that fit the head closely with the modish Harem veils of net or chiffon or combinations of both, are as practical as any disfiguring motor-bonnet, and are pretty and becoming whether one is in the car or out. New hats of fur, beaver or velvet that are just a stovepipe crown, worn with an adjustable chin strap and cockade plume, more than suggest their military origin, and go well with top coats that copy in their lines and trimmings coats worn over uniforms of Russian and Italian sources. Periods are all jumbled in the latest designs but so cleverly are their various combination that the result is distinctly smart and becoming. If the best results are desired it is always well to see that the lines of the hat and top coat harmonize, or as we say "look well together" before deciding to purchase new headwear.

FASHIONABLE CONTOURS

The season's modes emphasize the long straight lines that are so generally becoming and smart. The new "Betty Wales" dresses though primarily made for the school girls who dote on this healthy wholesome heroine of the Betty Wales stories, are being taken up quite as enthusiastically by older women who appreciate their clever smartness of line, and beauty of color and fiuish. Built on practical, fashionable one-piece models, these come in serges so cleverly tailored that they answer almost any daytime requirement; in silks, satins and Georgette crepe combinations for afternoon use, and in a fascinating line of dainty evening dresses or "social frocks," as their maker terms them—simple and young and modestly cut in all the latest ideas of color and with every smart up-to-date idea in trimming found in much more expensive creations.

SUMPTUOS WRAPS

For formal wear there is a bewildering array of sumptuous wraps of brocaded silks and velvets that will turn next season's audiences into a replica of some gorgeous Venetian gathering when the Boges ruled the Adriatic, gold and silver brocades, velvets and furs of the season lending themselves to this type of garment. A black velvet wrap is lined with white satin and trimmed with rich dark fur; a black and silver brocade is lined with salmon pink and trimmed with black Lynx. A champagne colored cloth of velvet finish lined with pink brocade has massive trimmings of brown fur.

The fur trimmings and the way they are placed have much to do with the effect on these garments. In the more elaborate models it is massed at the neck in huge cape-like collars that can be drawn up until only the tip of the nose and eyes are vissible. In one wrap the dark fur collar, at least a foot deep, has an inside lining of white fur of the same depth and with only a narrow edge of white vissible when the collar is drawn up, but showing all the white as the boat is thrown open.

"INTERNATIONAL MARRIAGE" AT RICHMOND THEATRE THIS EVENING

Bennington Brent in the Morosco Paramount photoplay "An International Marriage," is, as he expresses it—"rough dry."

A chain of big modern laundries is his great achievement. This accomplishment is the breadth of his life and the standard of all his quaintly phrased comparisons. For as he says, "anything that goes through the wringer and comes out fast colors—is the 'real goods.'"

To the foreign duke who seeks his daughter's hand, this is the response. "If she wants you—all right, but I can't tell if you're fast color until you come through the wringer."

Shrewdly knowing his deficiencies he whimsically says "yes' I'm just rough dry," and "I haven't had much chance to acquire a satin gloss finish but I'm sure glad to meet any friend of the duke's."

The deceitful and devious conduct of the duke brings forth this straight-from-the-shoulder American denunciation. "You're fast color all right, but its yellow."

This fascinating Broadhurst stage success is playing today and tomorrow at the Richmond theater is a superb vehicle for beautiful Rita Jolivet's charm and attractiveness.

BUSH BASEBALL PRODUCES REAL DYED IN THE WOOL RESULTS FOR RABID FANS

CUNNINGHAM TO REPORT TO OAKS, BURNS RELEASED

Del Howard has begun the reorganization of his Oakland ball club in earnest. He served release notice yesterday upon Second Baseman Jap Barbeau and Pitcher Bill Burns. He also signed up Bill Cunningham to play the outfield.

Cunningham has been with the Seattle club this year and made a great record. He broke into baseball in 1912 with the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league and made a great batting record. The next spring, however, he did not look so good and was shipped away for development. Then he retired from professional baseball, but he kept playing in amateur circles and as a consequence was induced to get back into the game and now has landed once again in the Coast league.

He did not do anything with the bat yesterday, save to lay down a sacrifice, but he threw Bodie out at the plate after catching a long fly, and the throw was one that guarantees that runners in general are going to beware of his arm.

Howard has also announced that Rod Murphy will finish out the season as Oakland's third baseman. Howard is hopeful of developing a team of fast youngsters with which to begin next season.

DIAMOND NOTES

The Modesto Reds' press agent has sent out a claim for the semi-pro championship on the ground that the Reds have had a good team in past years, are strictly home talent and have maintained the same club year after year. The fact that both Richmond and Merced have succeeded in taking a series away from the Reds this season doesn't enter into the argument at all. The Reds have had wonderful clubs in former years, it is true, but in the present generation of bushers they are not to be reckoned as much better than second raters. Martinez, Richmond and Merced and almost any of the Trolley league clubs could take the Modesto club down the line, even though none of the clubs mentioned are strictly founded on the "home industry" plan, nor have been going for ten years.

Babe Hollis blanked Chico and enabled the Giants to tie with Sacramento for first place. Hollis and Shader were even up in the matter of hits allowed, but Clayton, beg pardon, Babe, had the edge in the run-making. Marysville's quartet of tingles all counted in the run-making. The score

Club—	R.	H.	E.
Marysville	4	4	3
Chico	0	4	6

Pitcher Claire, the pride and joy of Hollister, was again taken down the line by the Potato Rollers. It seems to us that this is the party who was slated to join the Richmond Santa Fe team not long ago, and whose departure was the cause of a terrific yelp from down the valley. His remaining with Hollister comes under the head of things about which the Santa Fes should worry.

Merced hung one on the Chowchilla club on Admission Day and came right back and took the deciding game of the series with Modesto away from the Reds by a score of 7-2. Roy Bliss pitched the Colts to a win on Saturday, while Benham had things comparatively easy on Sunday against the Reds.

RICHMOND AND MARTINEZ SERIES IS NOW 2 AND 2

Martinez and Richmond are horse and horse in the matter of deciding the independent championship of the bay region. The issue will be determined next Sunday at Richmond, when the clubs meet for the fifth time this season. Each club has taken two games.

The series thus far has been productive of the most exciting games that have been staged in the bush world for several seasons. Interest in this city and Martinez has reached a fever pitch, and the ball fans in other towns, as well as San Francisco, are preparing to march on Richmond next Sunday to be in at the death of McNamara's Martinez marvels, or the downfall of the local team.

Competent judges of bush clubs and conditions among the tall grass outfits look forward to a great game next Sunday. It is strictly a choice of take your pick. The clubs are so evenly balanced that the very smallest of "breaks" will probably decide the game and the series. Richmond will be the capital of the bush kingdom for next Sunday at least.

OLYMPIC CLUB IS WINNER ON ALLEYS

The crack Olympic bowling club from San Francisco nosed out the Richmond team at the Seventh street alleys in a three game set by 212 pins. The Olympics piled up a score of 2766 for the three games against 2554 made by the locals

Here is the game in full:

Olympic—First game, Fred Bash, 202; H. Rittner, 162; Lindley, 167; Varales, 167; Irwin, 189; second game, Bash, 172; Rittner, 141; Lindley, 220; Varales, 168; Irwin, 235; third game, Bash, 216; Rittner, 157; Lindley, 180; Varales, 168; Irwin 222.

Richmond—First game, Levy, 151; Bevan, 148; Gregg, 167; Keville, 149; Henry, 177; second game, Levy, 207; Bevan, 132; Greeg, 174; Keville, 170; Henry, 198; third game, Levy, 176; Bevan, 172; Gregg, 188; Keville, 179; Henry, 166.

The next game will be played the latter part of this month on the Olympic alleys.

"WHEN IT'S CLOTHES, JIM, GO TO CHERRY'S"

"That's all right, and I'm not saying that isn't a welcome slogan when this fine weather is coaxing a fellow to freshen up. But it's this way with me, Hal, I never buy a new Suit till my old one is fairly threadbare, and my 'best' Suit starts to get a little shiny and baggy in places.

"I don't like it, of course. My wardrobe has lapses when I feel confoundedly shabby—and I look it, too, I know. 'Tacky spells' I call them, and dread them horribly. But what's a fellow to do? I've bigger things to do with my money than spend it all on Clothes."

"Utterly absurb, Jim! No reason at all why you can't look like a 'somebody' ALL THE TIME on the money you can afford to spend. I do it—so do hundreds of other men. CHERRY'S is a handsome place—at 528 Thirteenth street—and I want you to go up and see the splendid Suits at $20 and $25. See ALL the nifty Suits at many prices, think how easy it will be to pay a little every month on the one you like best, and it's a safe bet you'll decide that shabby Clothes don't pay." CHERRY'S Ladies Store is at 515 Thirteenth street. The San Francisco stores are at 1009 Market and 2400 Mission street; and in Tacoma, Portland, Sacramento and Los Angeles.—Advt.

HOT WATER THE BEST LIVER AND BOWEL MEDICINE

Says glass of hot water before breakfast washes poisons from system.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance. —Advt.

FORMER S. O. TANKER UNSOLVED MYSTERY

Captain J. A. Griswold, in command of the mystery steamer Maverick, a former Standard Oil tanker, arrived from Batavia on the Shinyo Maru via Hongkong yesterday. He said:

"I took command of the Maverick under orders of Henry Hart after she put into Batavia. There is no chance for her to leave, as the British have announced that she will be seized if she moves.

"There are no munitions on board. I believe she was to have taken some on. The ship is a mystery, all right. I believe she was to have been used as a blind for some activities south of the Suez canal."
